04.1

How to start a checklist?

Pretty easy, right?

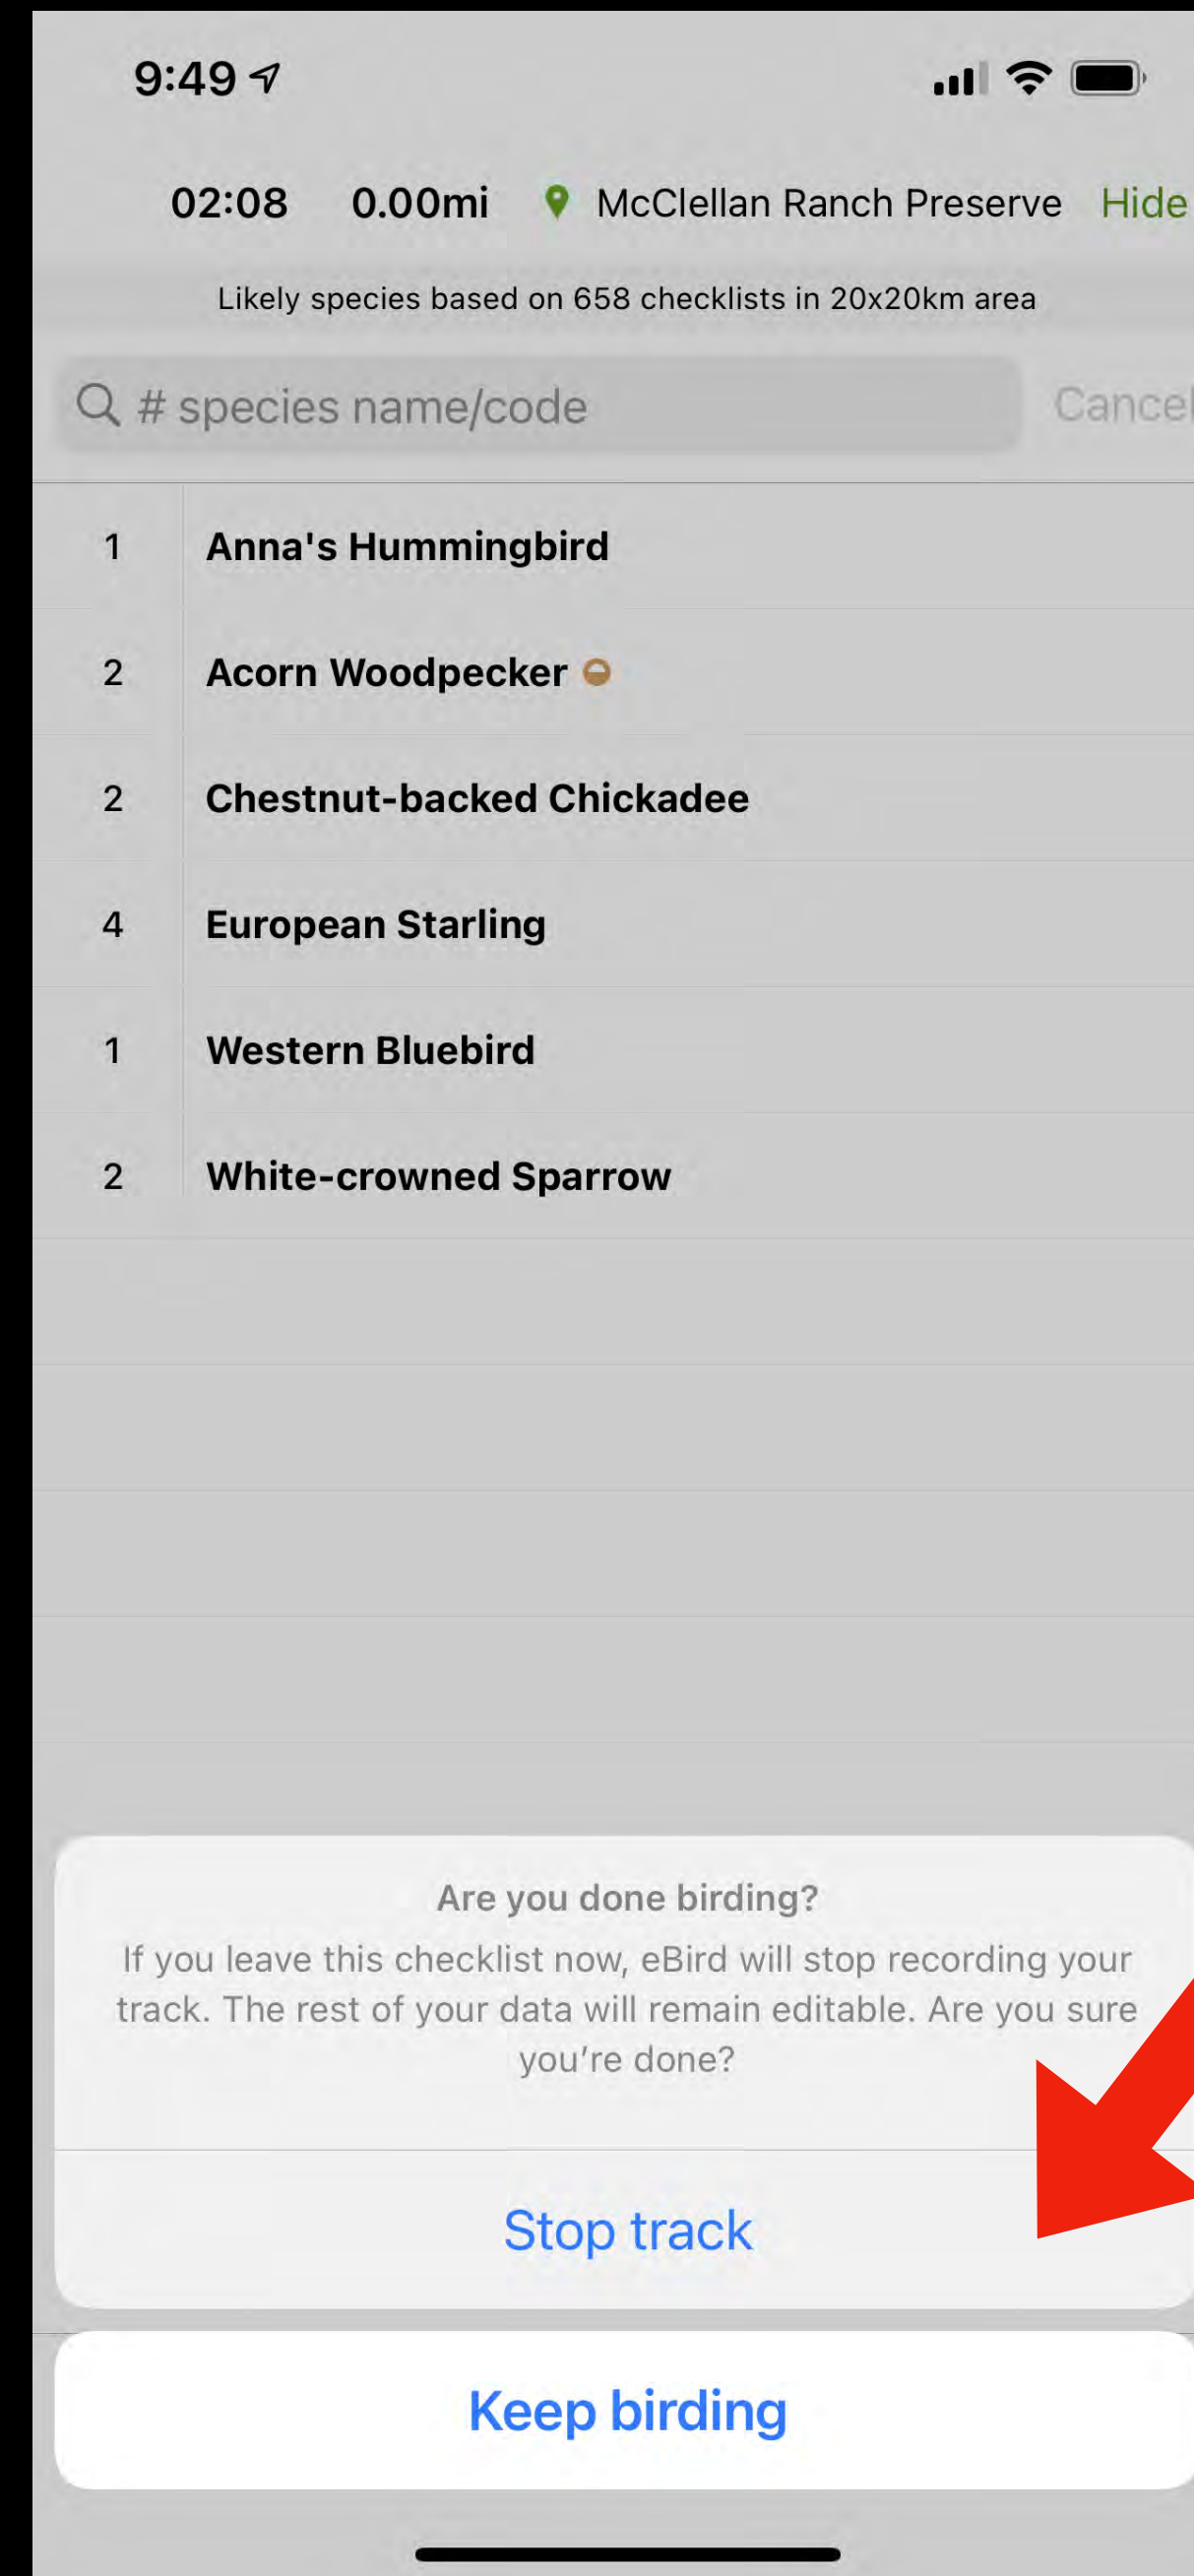

04.2

How to stop a checklist?

To stop a list just click this button

Depending on how your app is configured, you may have a long, messy list of birds you have not yet seen... Just click this button to collapse the list to show only what you have entered.

Press "stop track" if you are done birding. But if you want to continue, press "keep birding"

05

How to submit a checklist?

Submitting is a simple process. Click "submit"

You may see the word "review" if you make changes. If so, click it to confirm the numbers and names are correct.

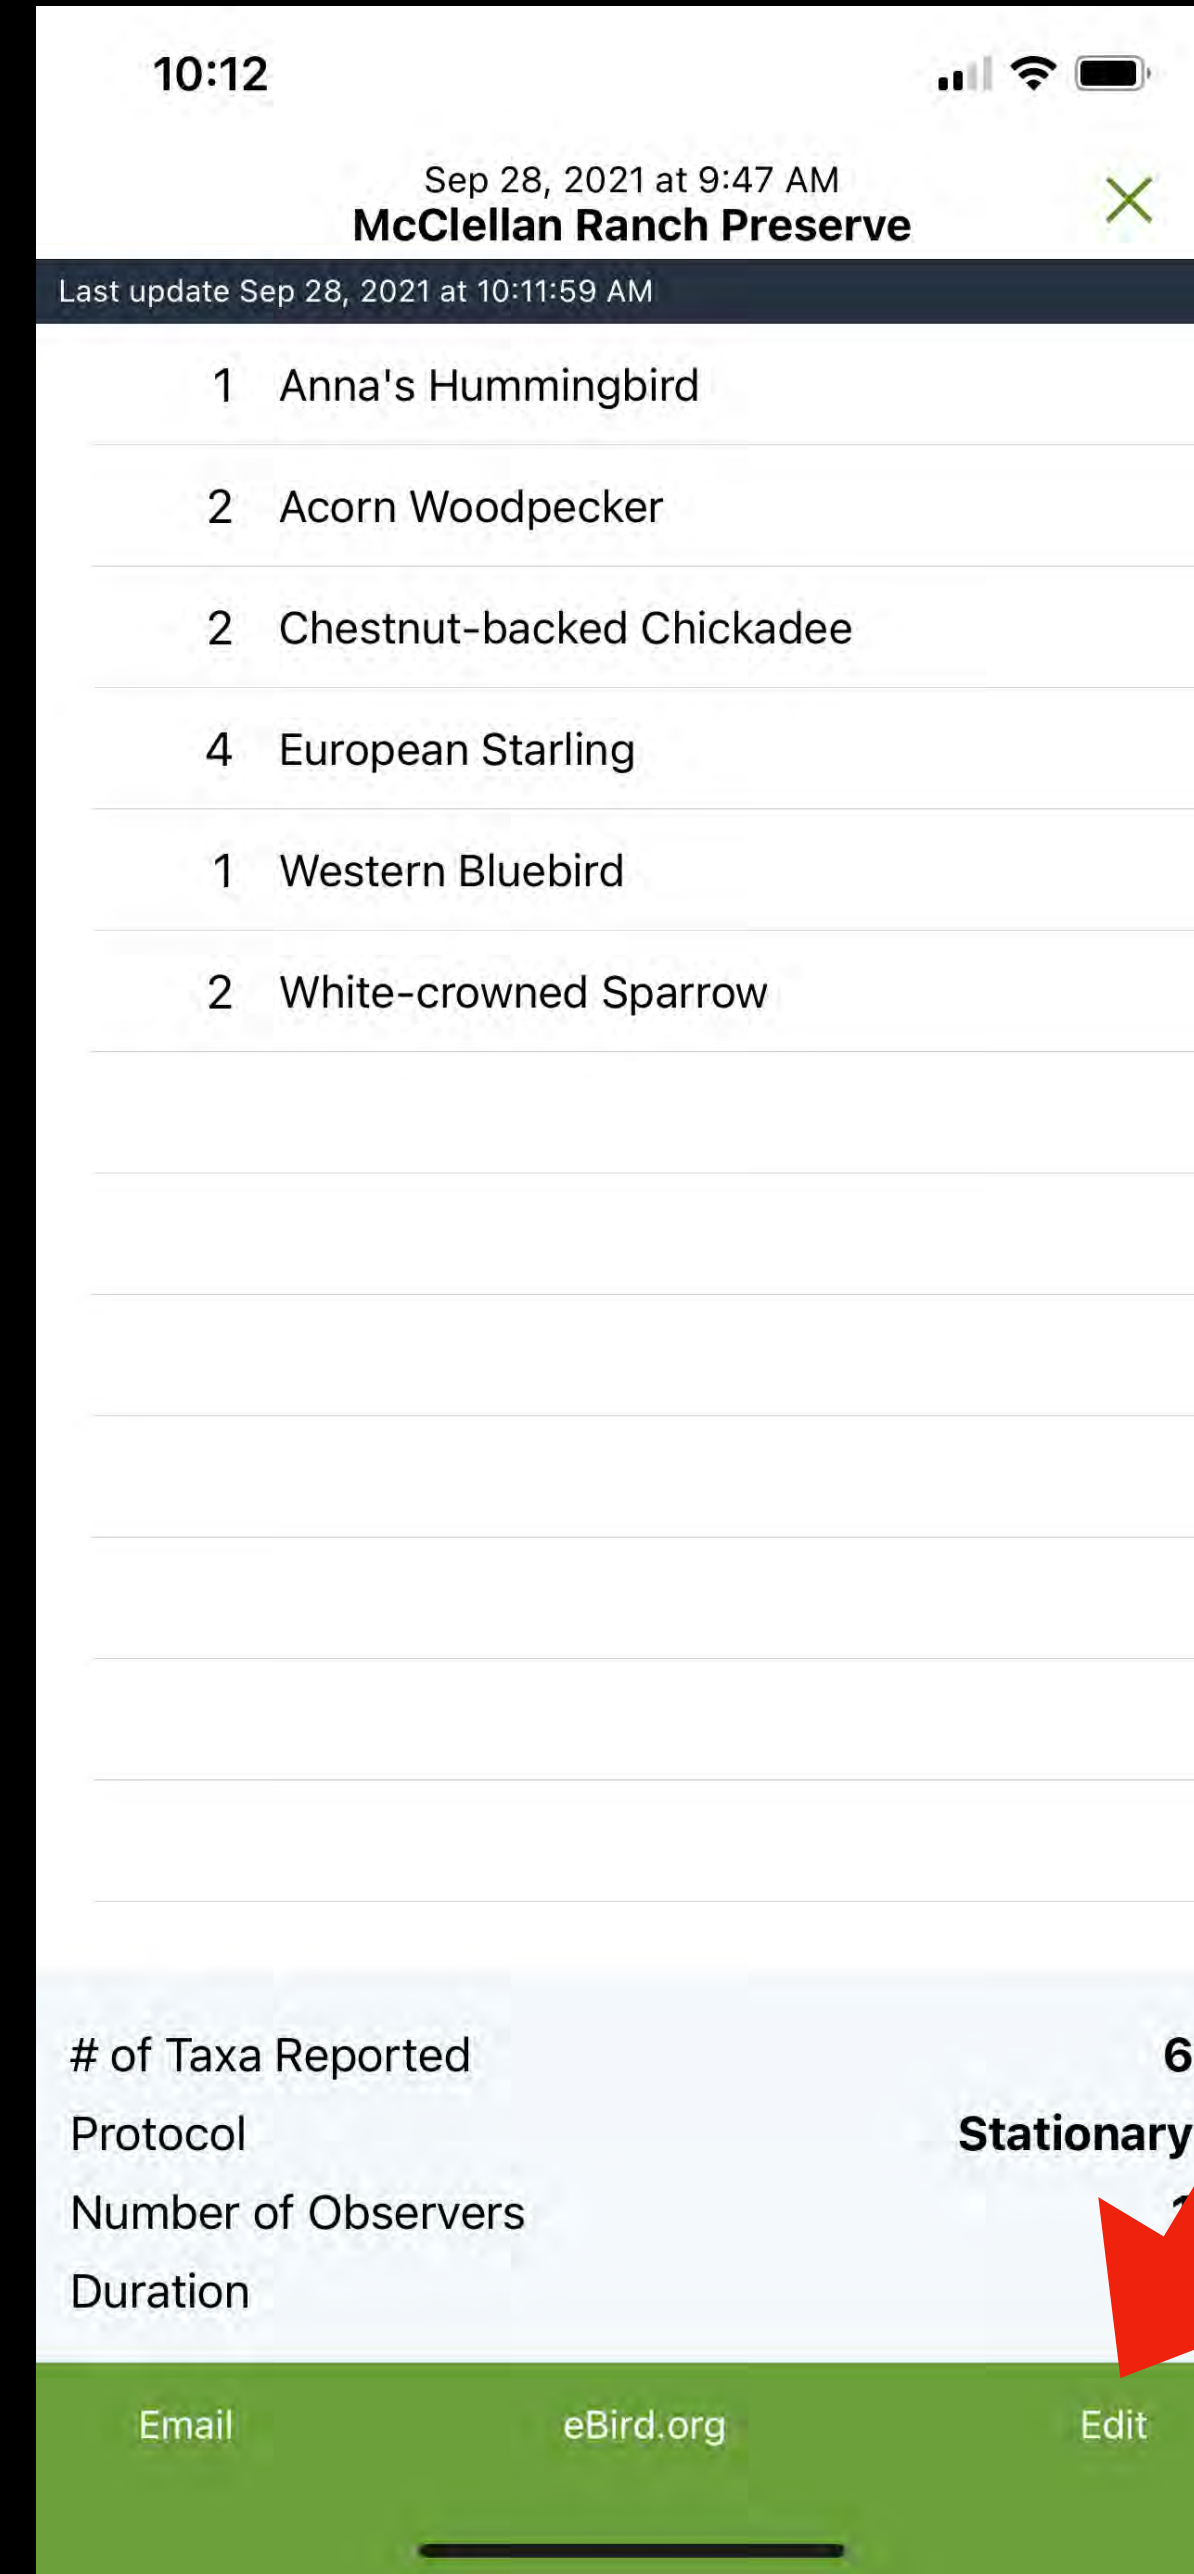

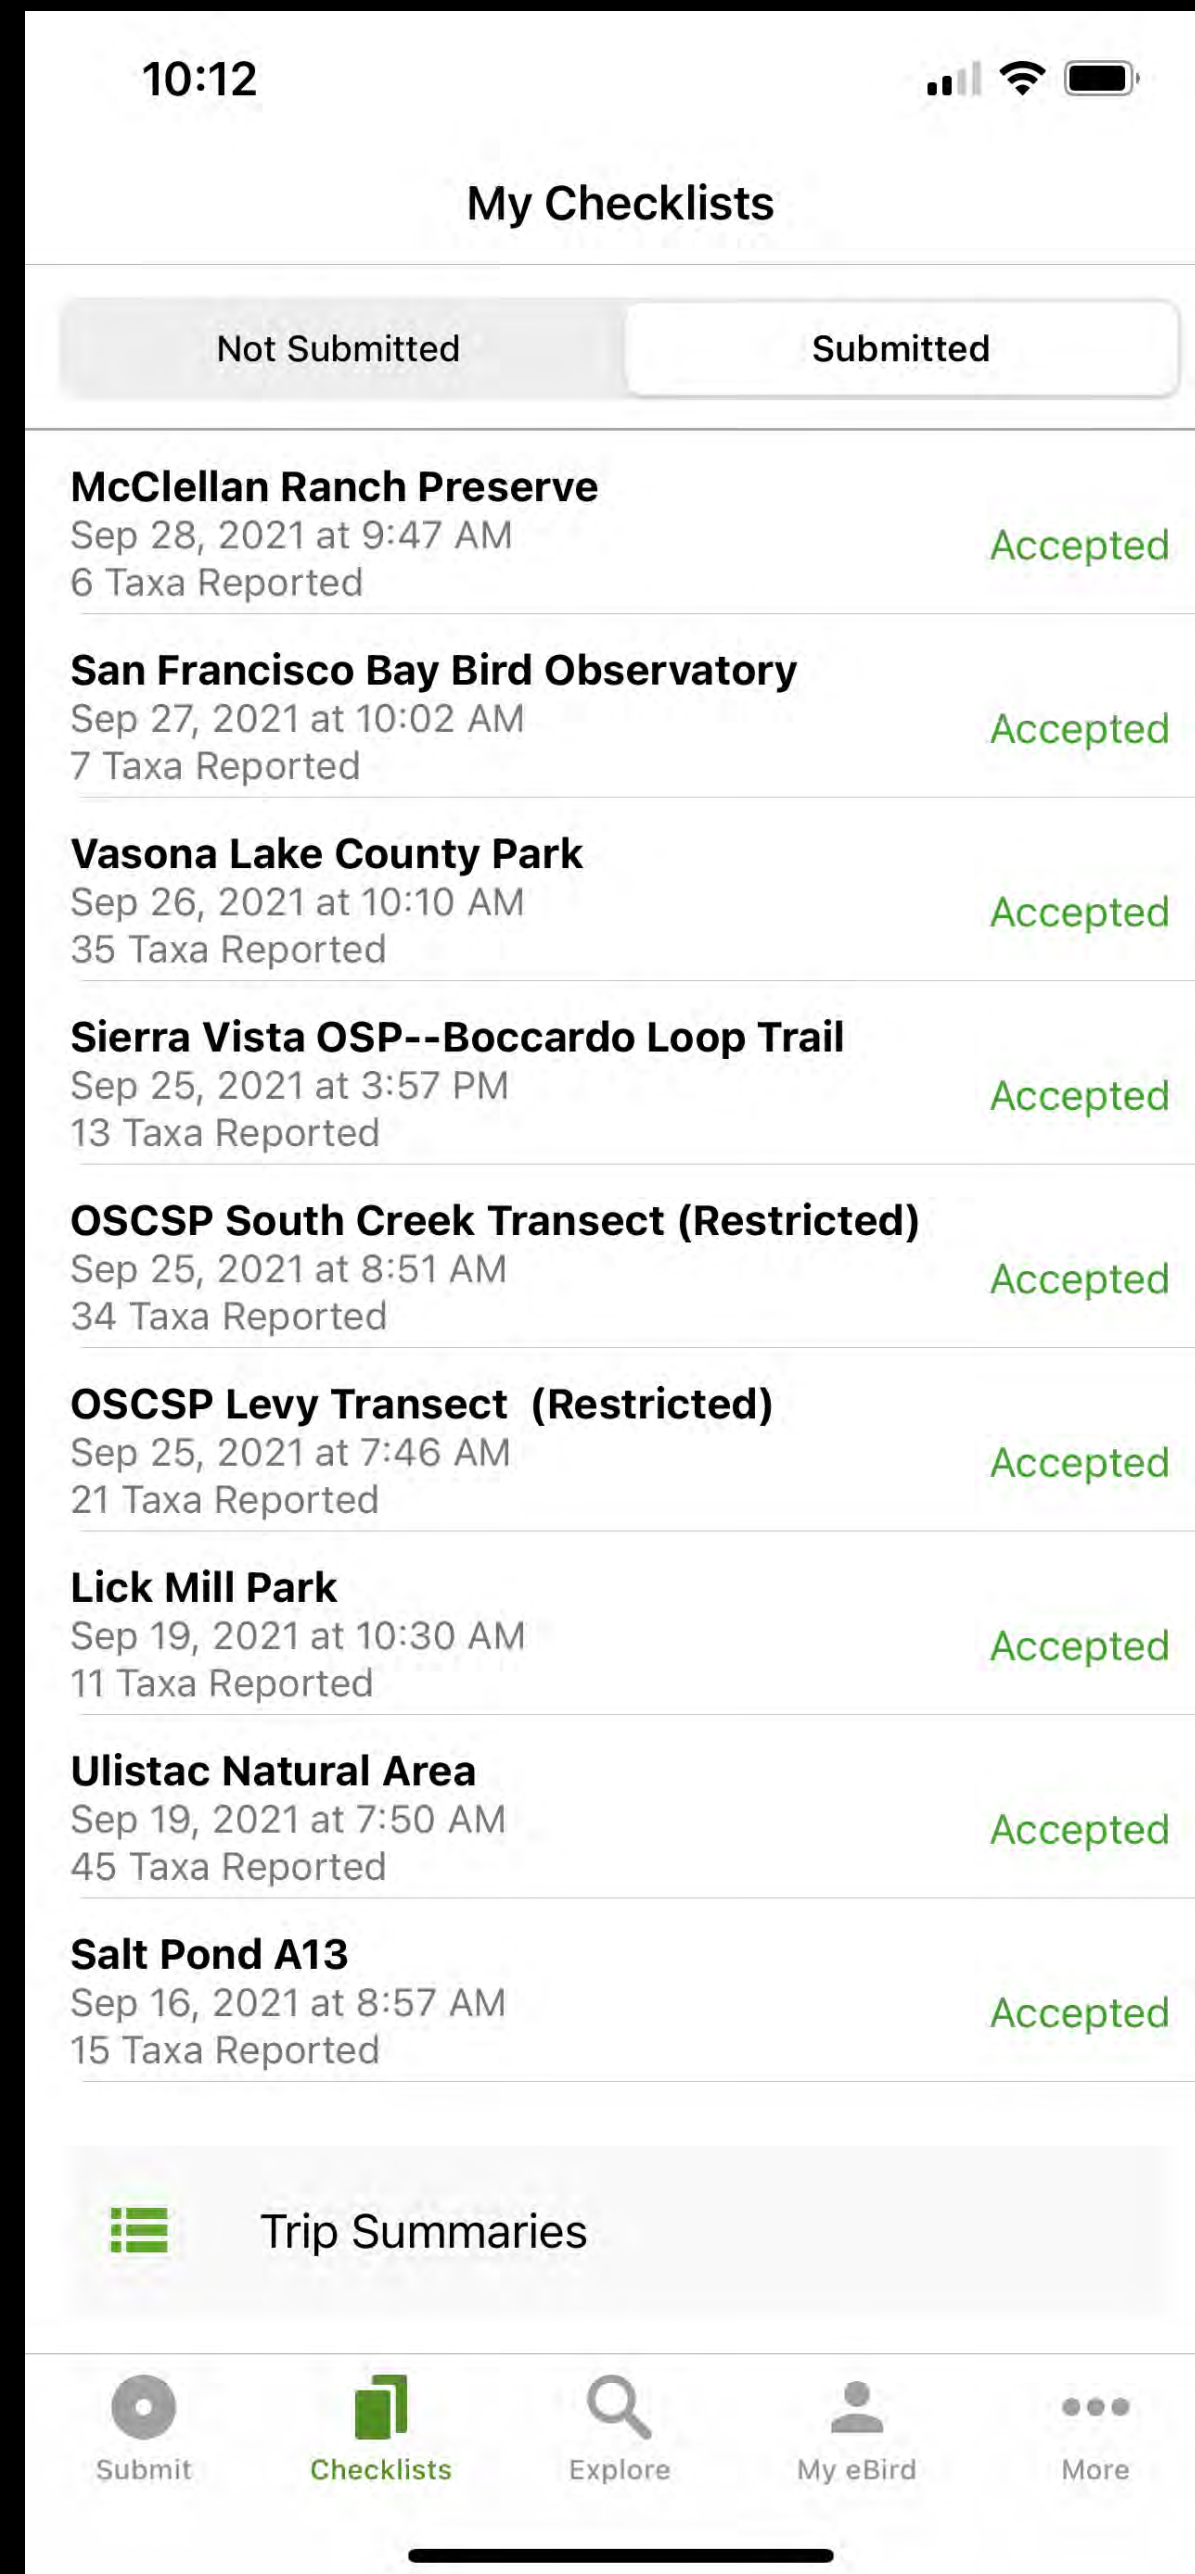

Your new checklist will appear on the "submitted" window. It can now be viewed or updated.

06

How to edit a checklist?

To edit a checklist, find it on “submitted” and click the name to open it.

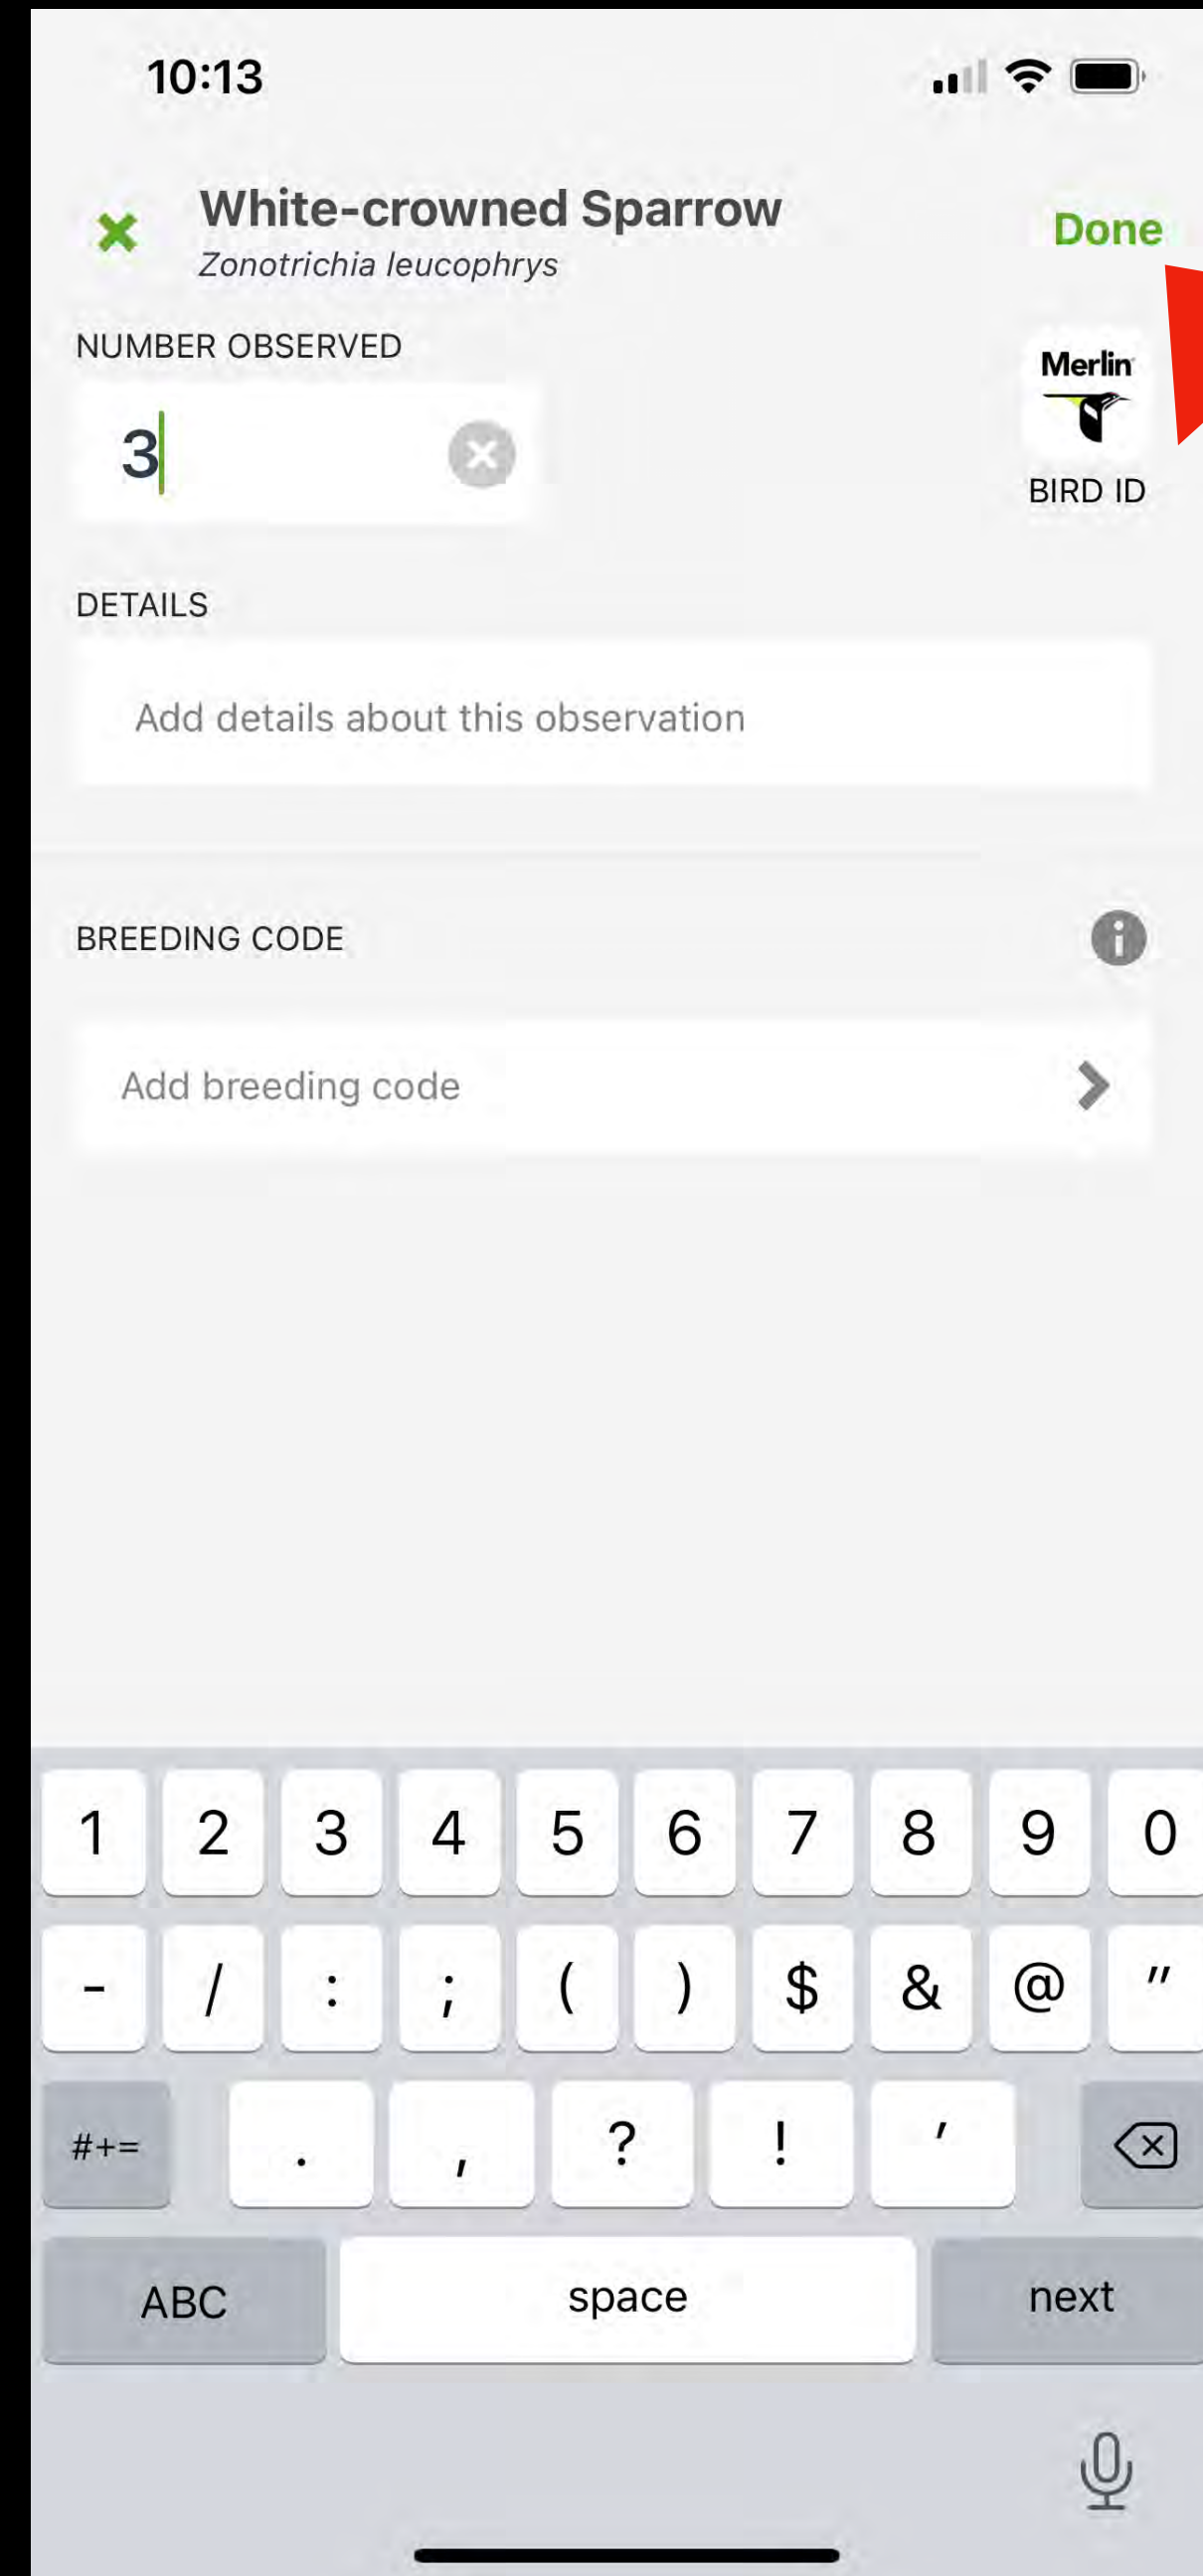

Find the “edit” button

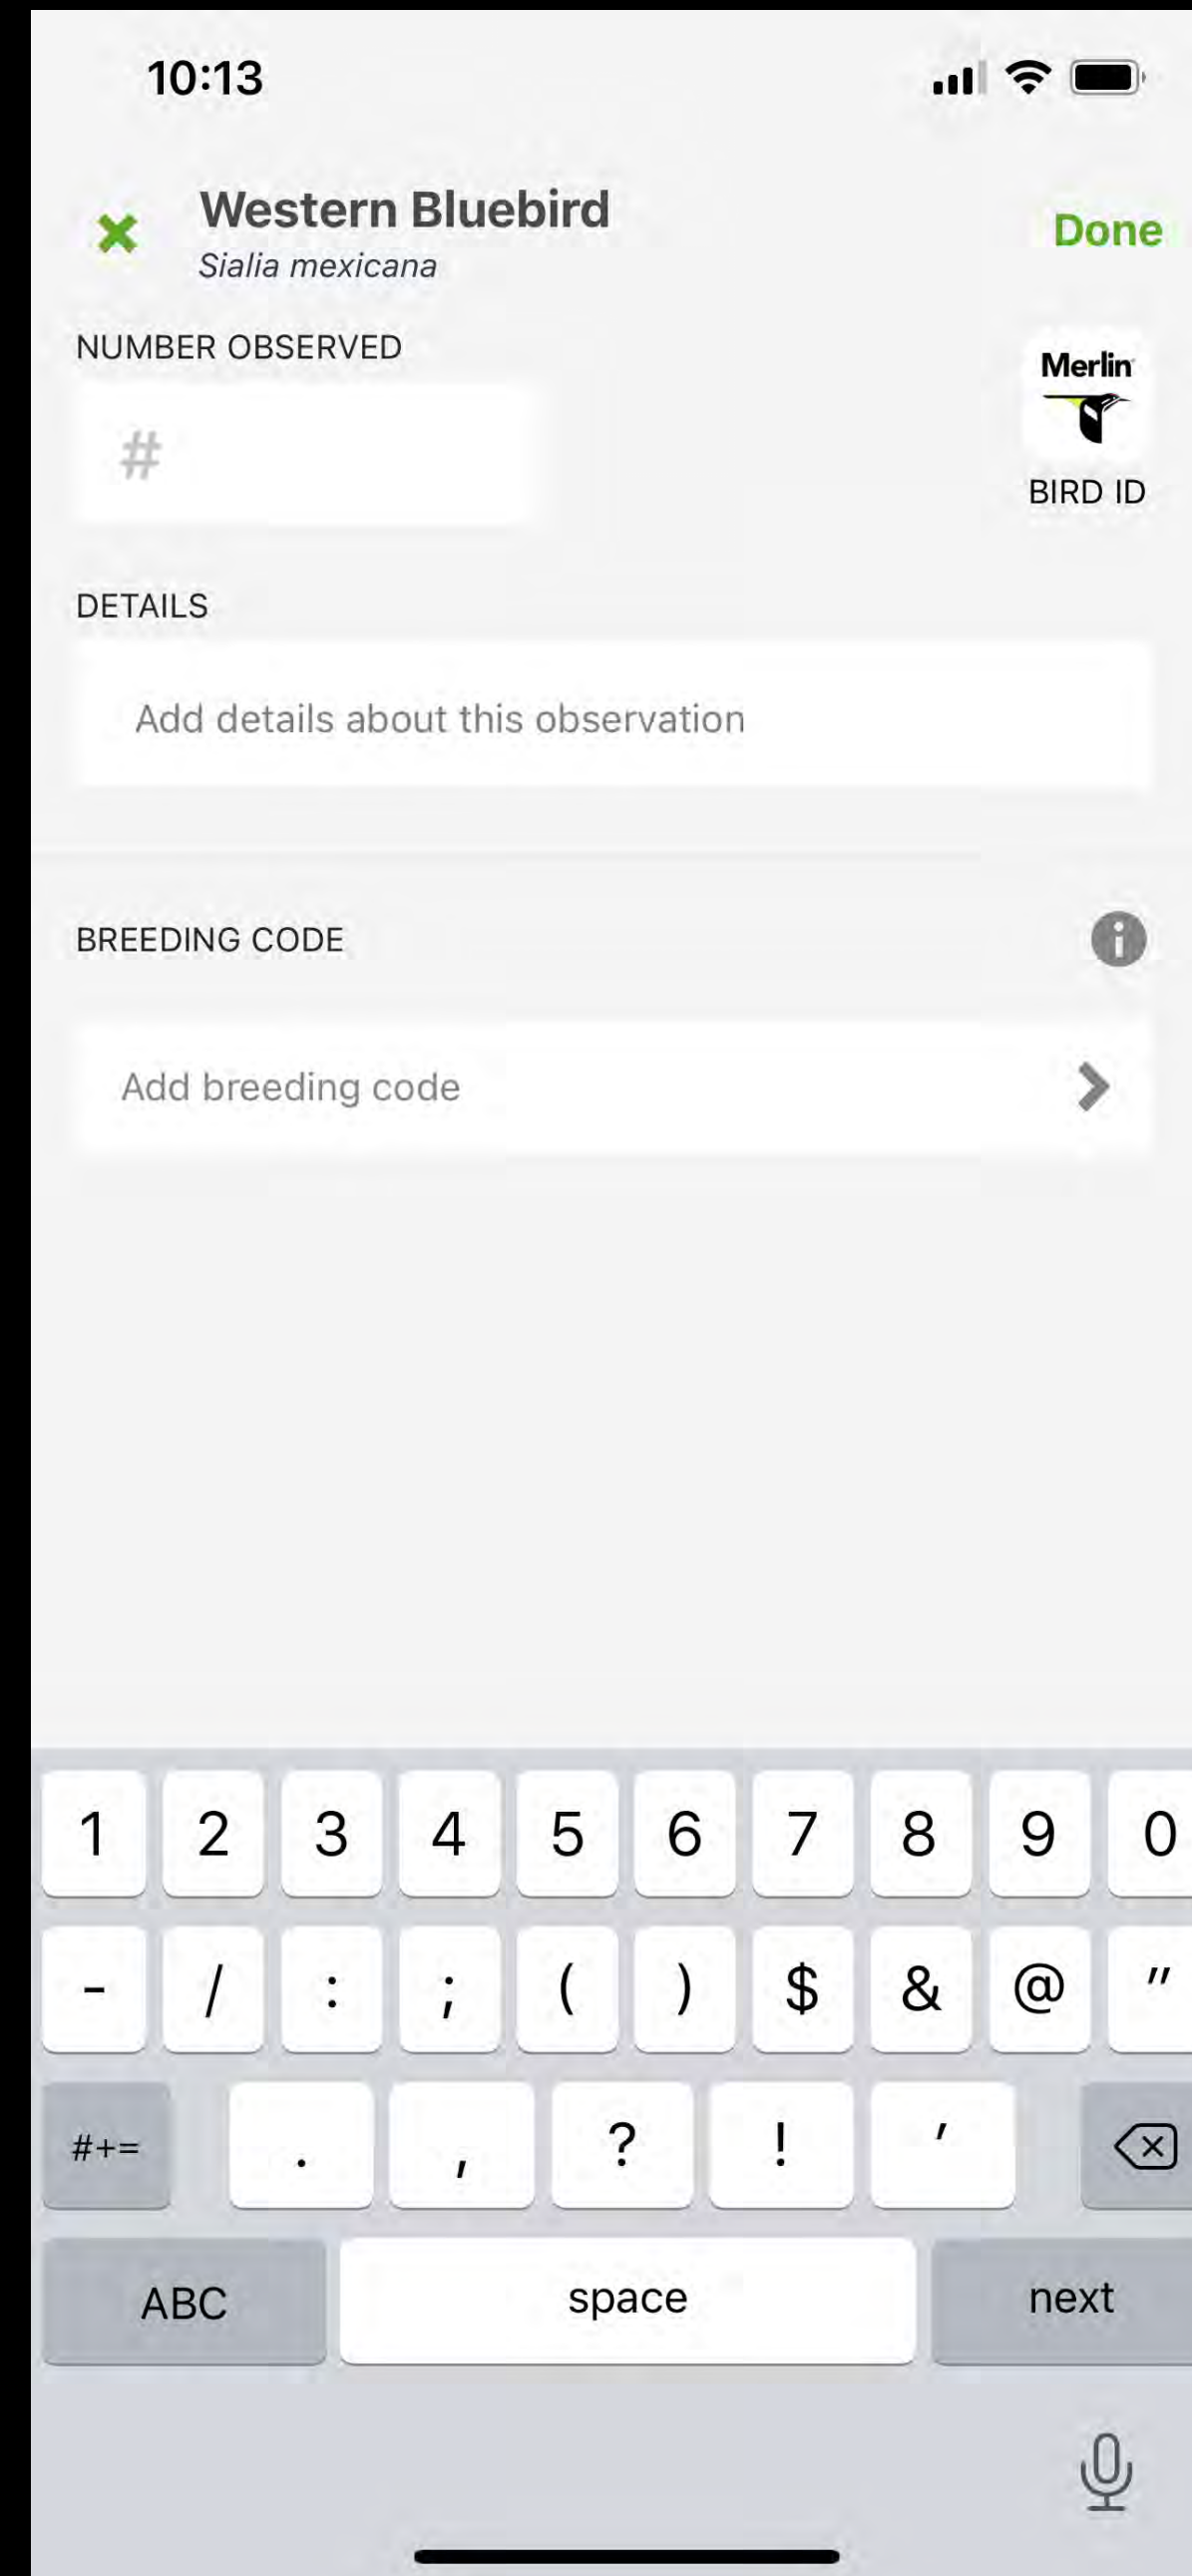

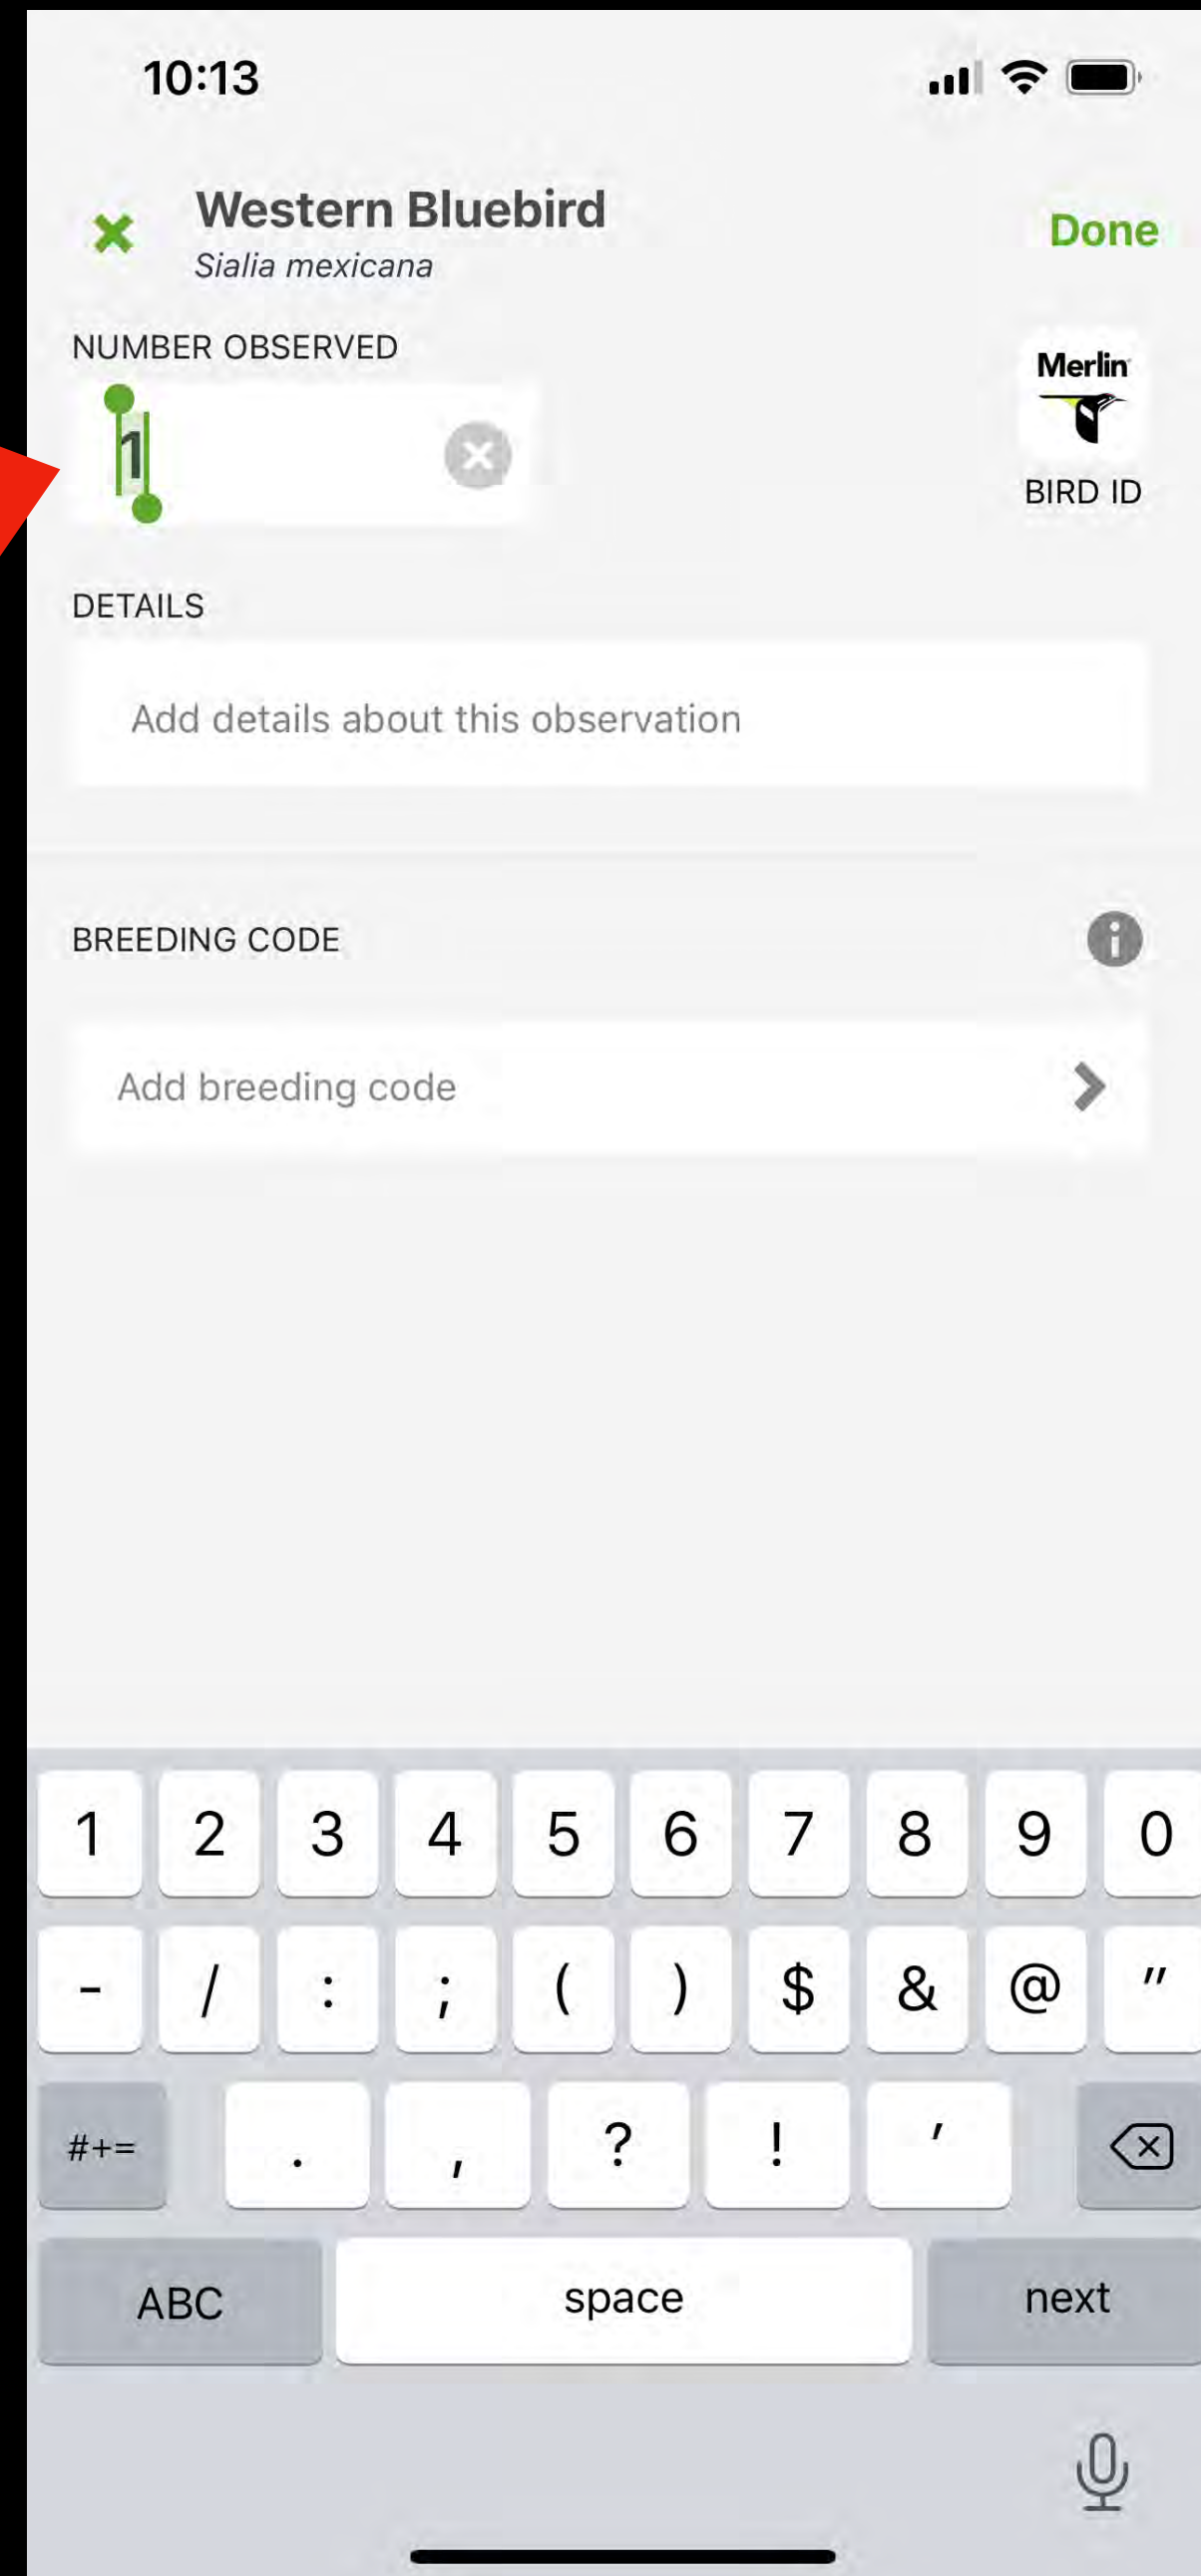

Increase or decrease the number of observed by simply changing the numeral

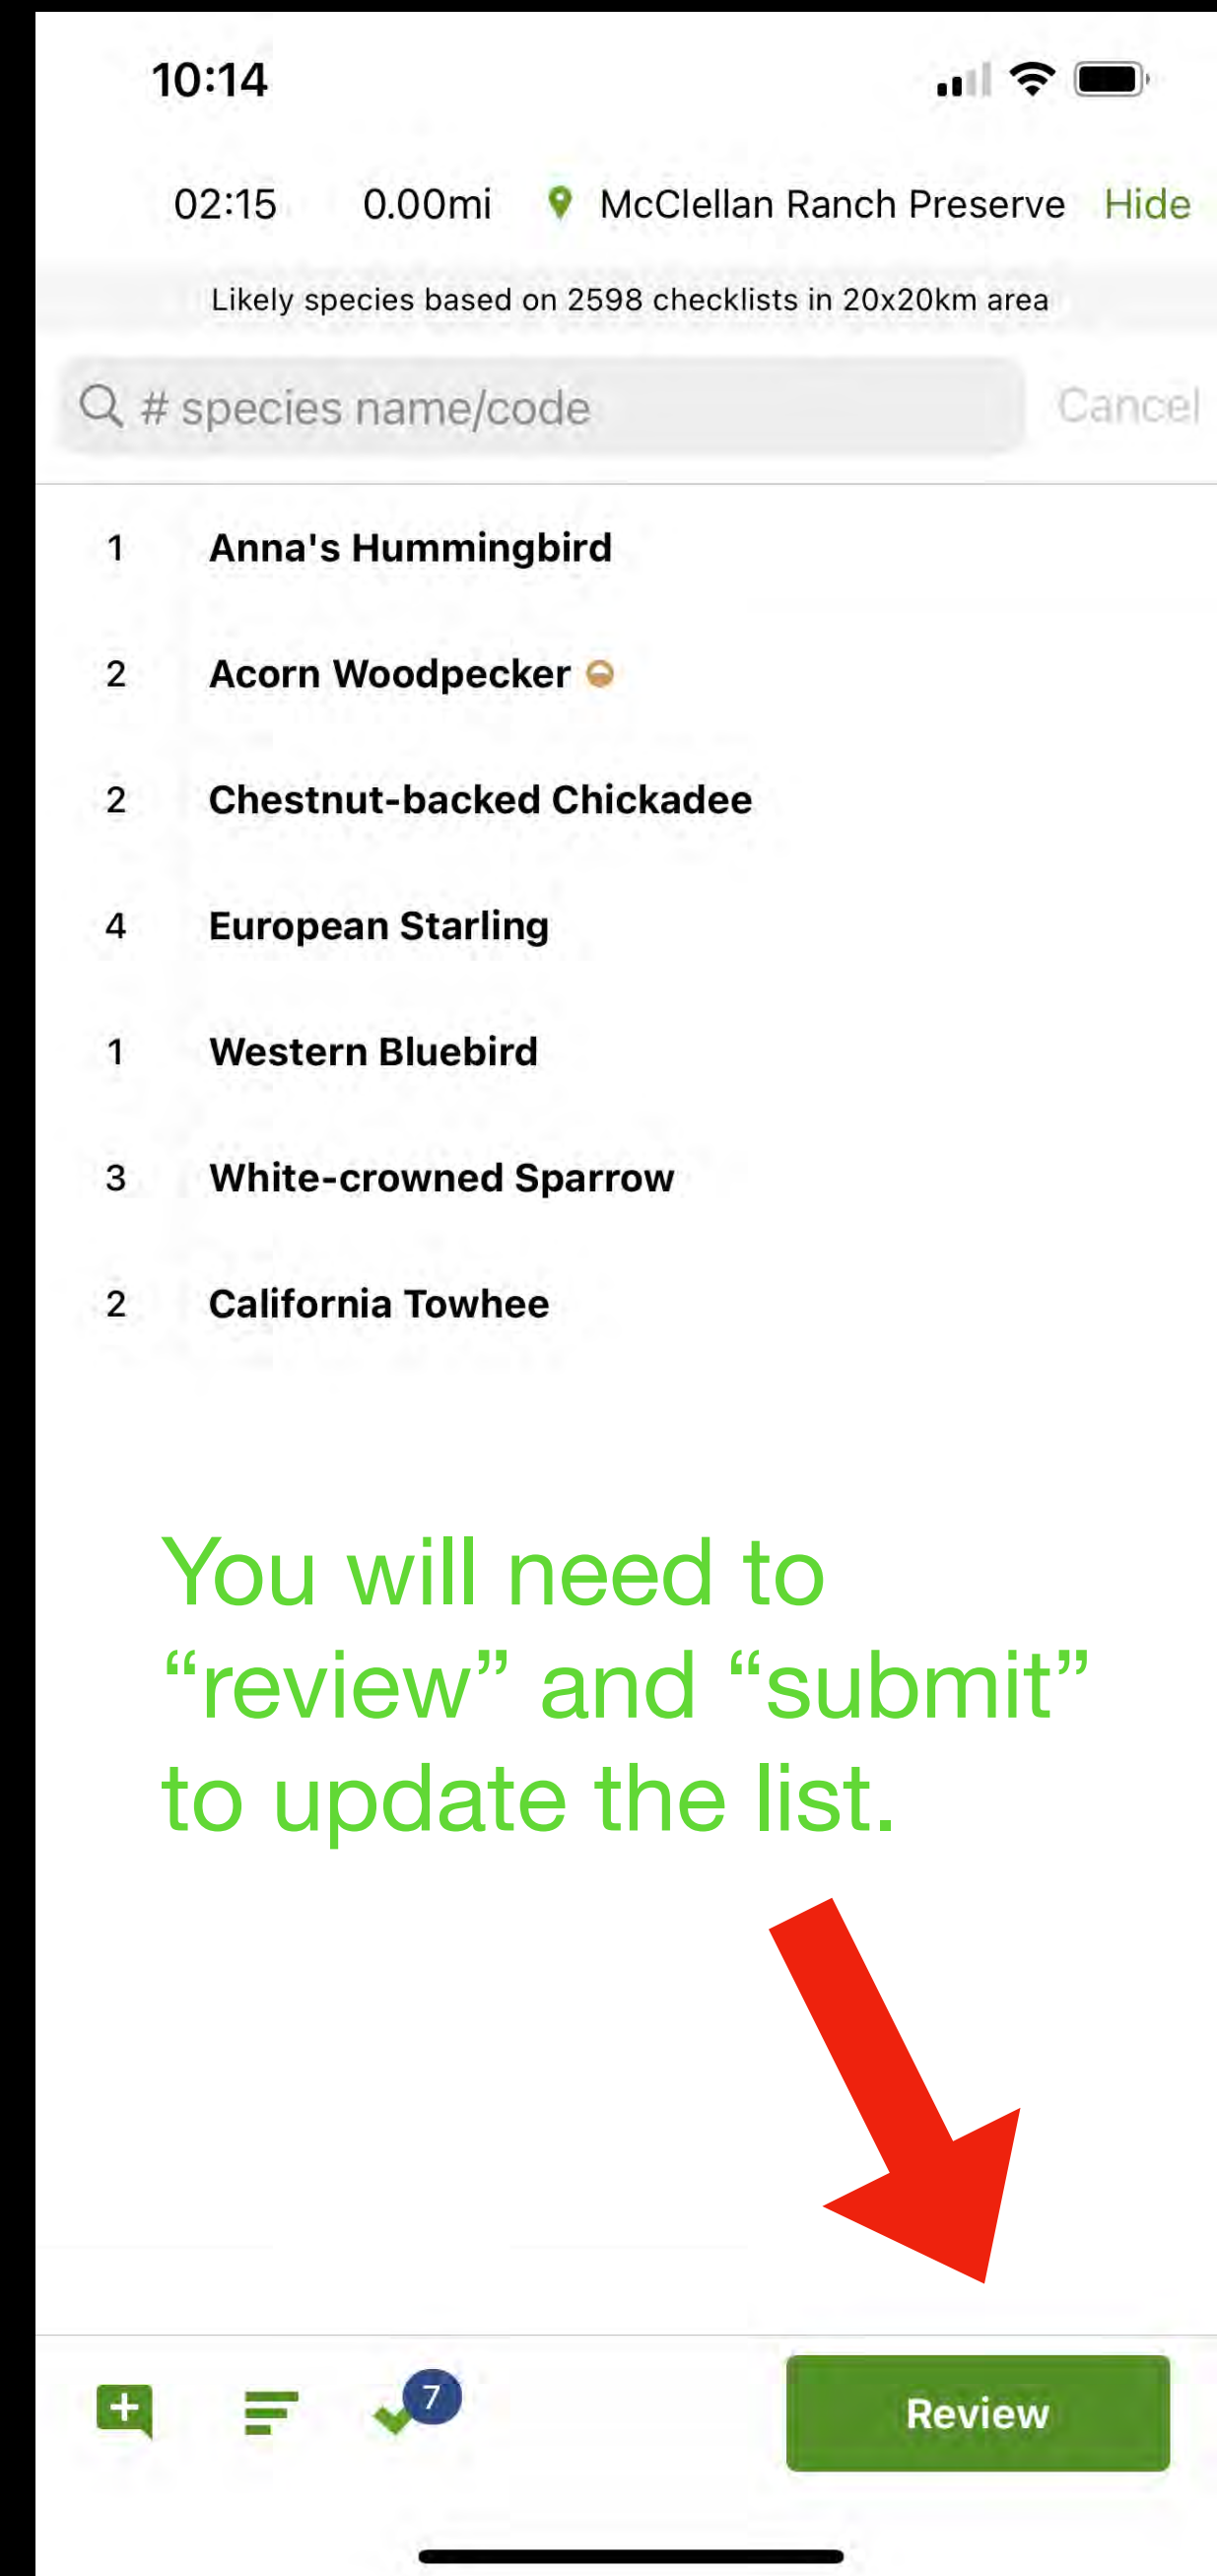

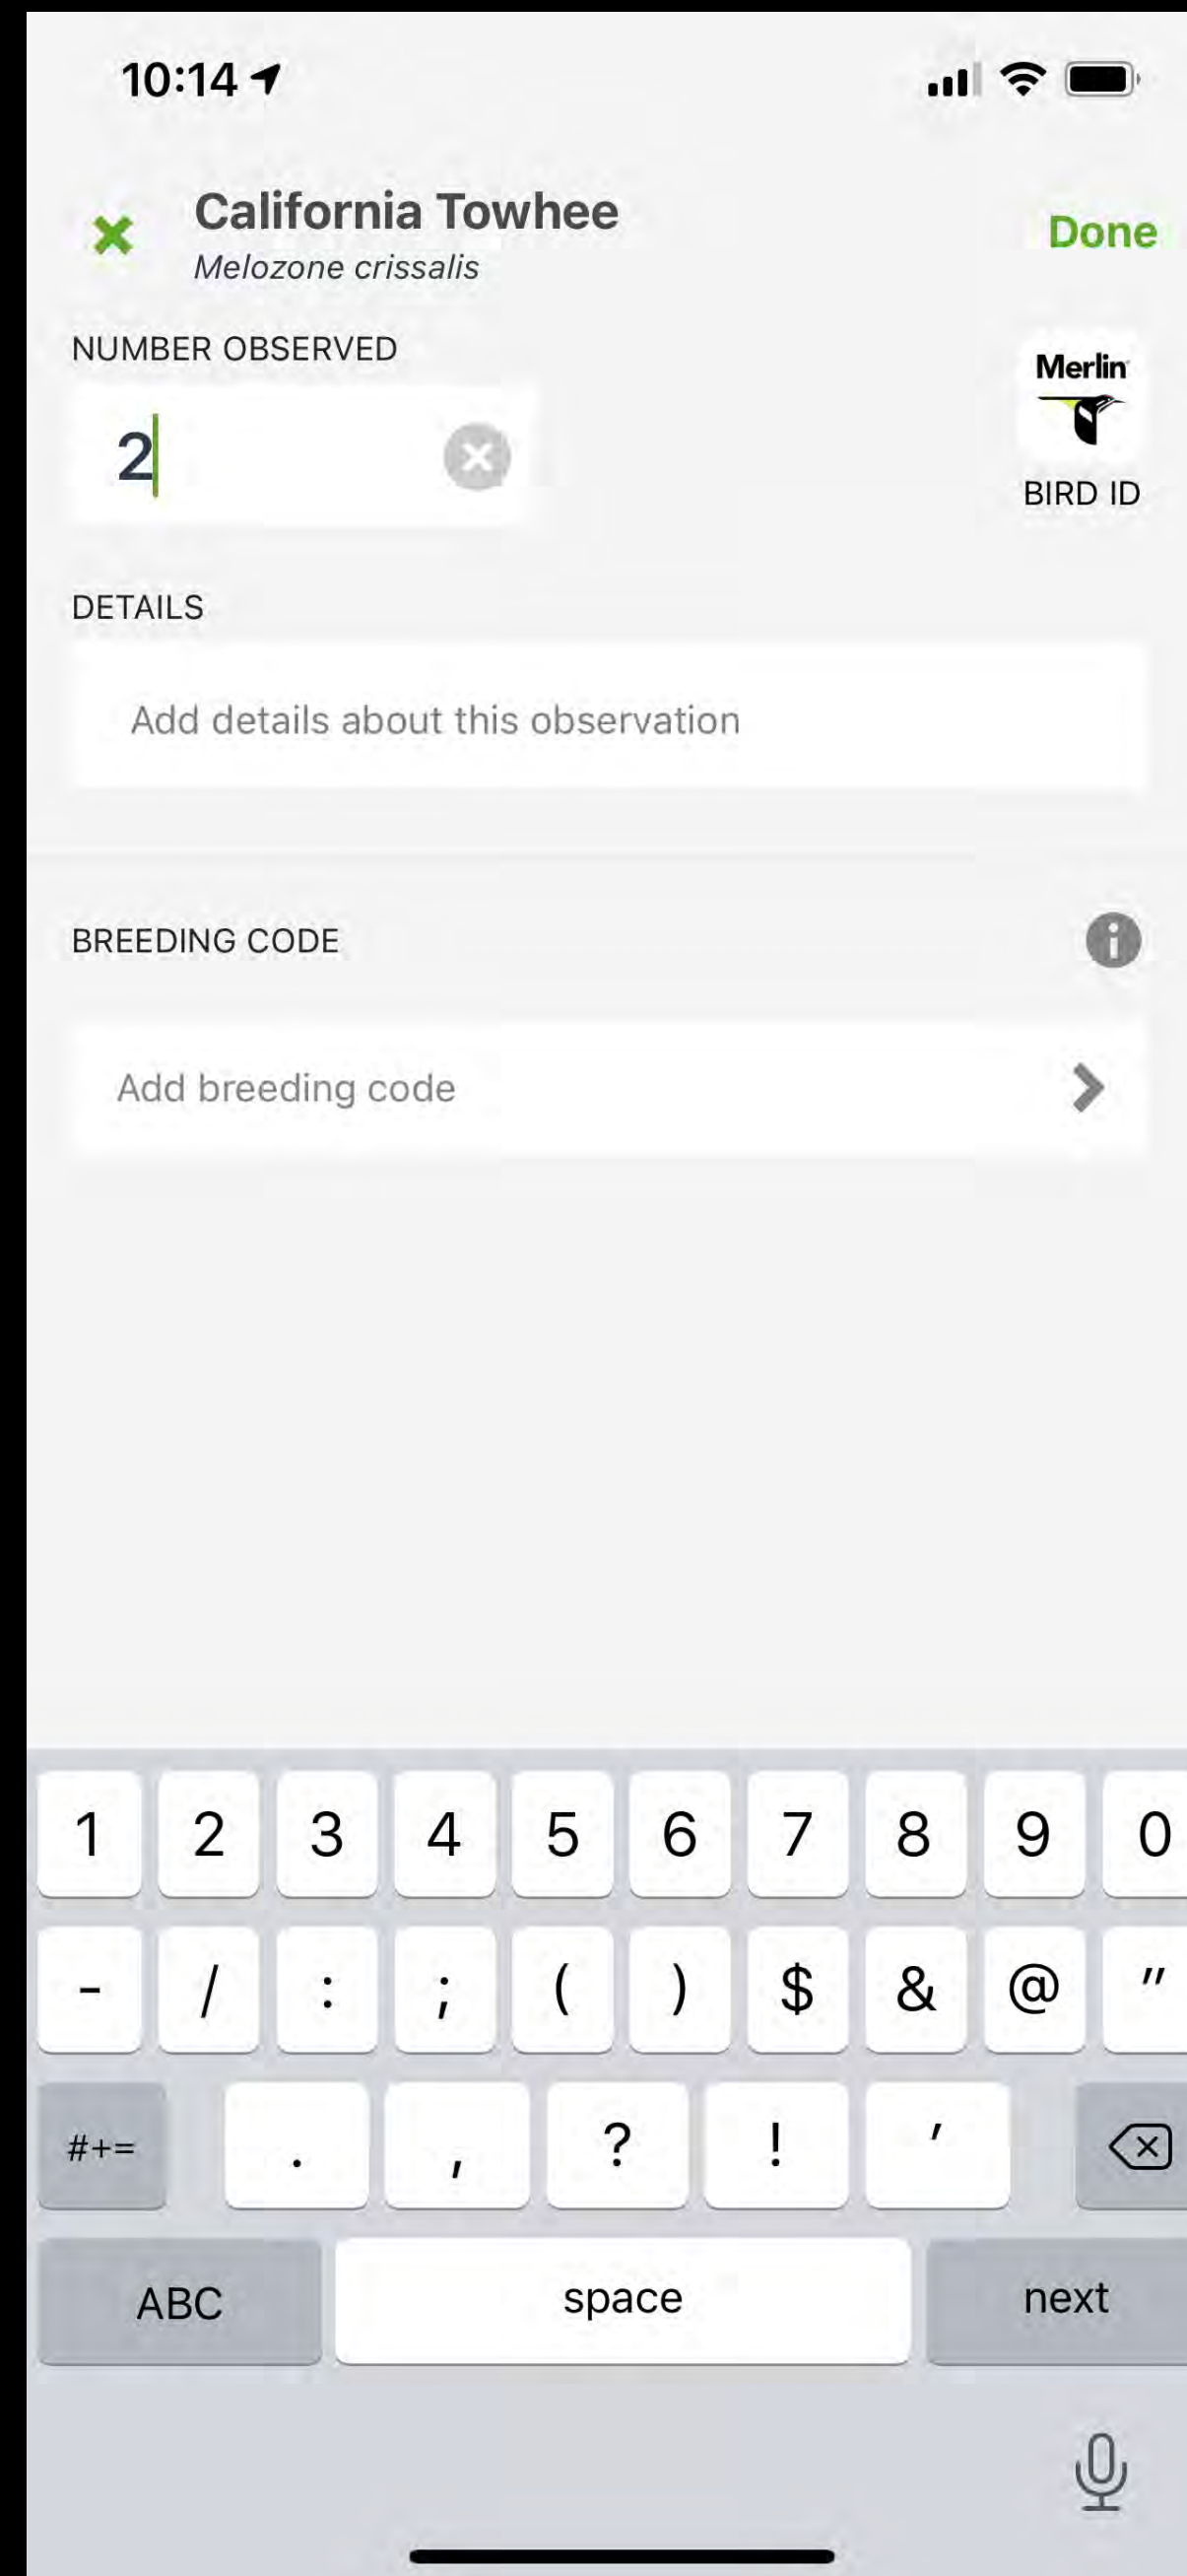

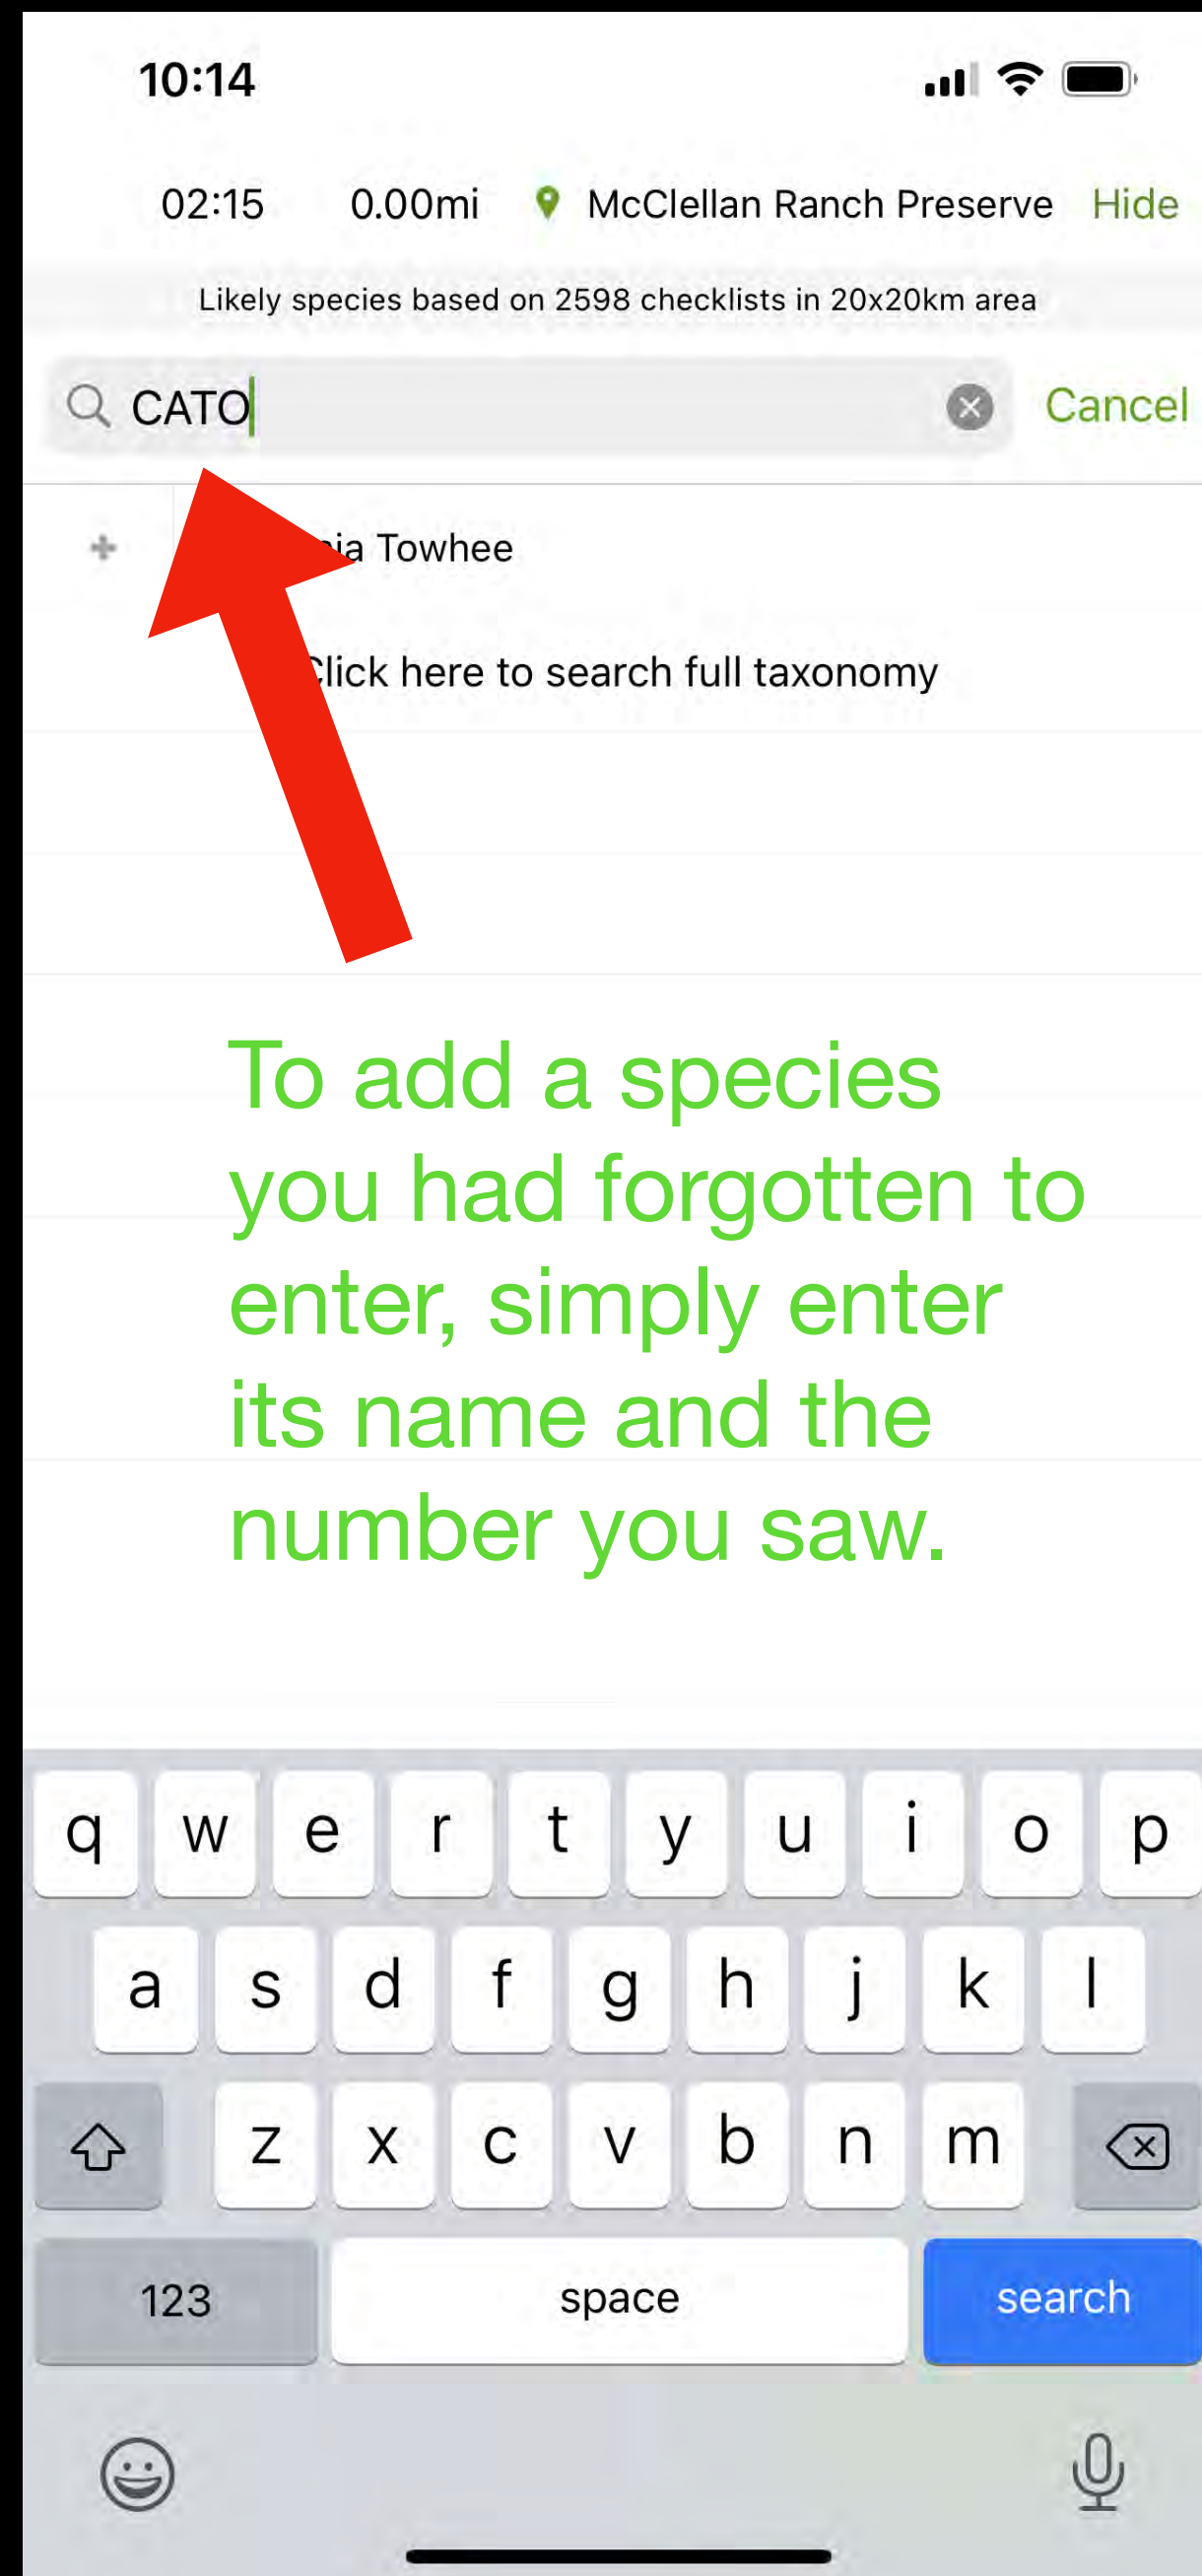

Click "done"

To delete a bird entered by mistake, delete the numeral completely.

Entering “0” (zero) will not delete the species from your checklist.

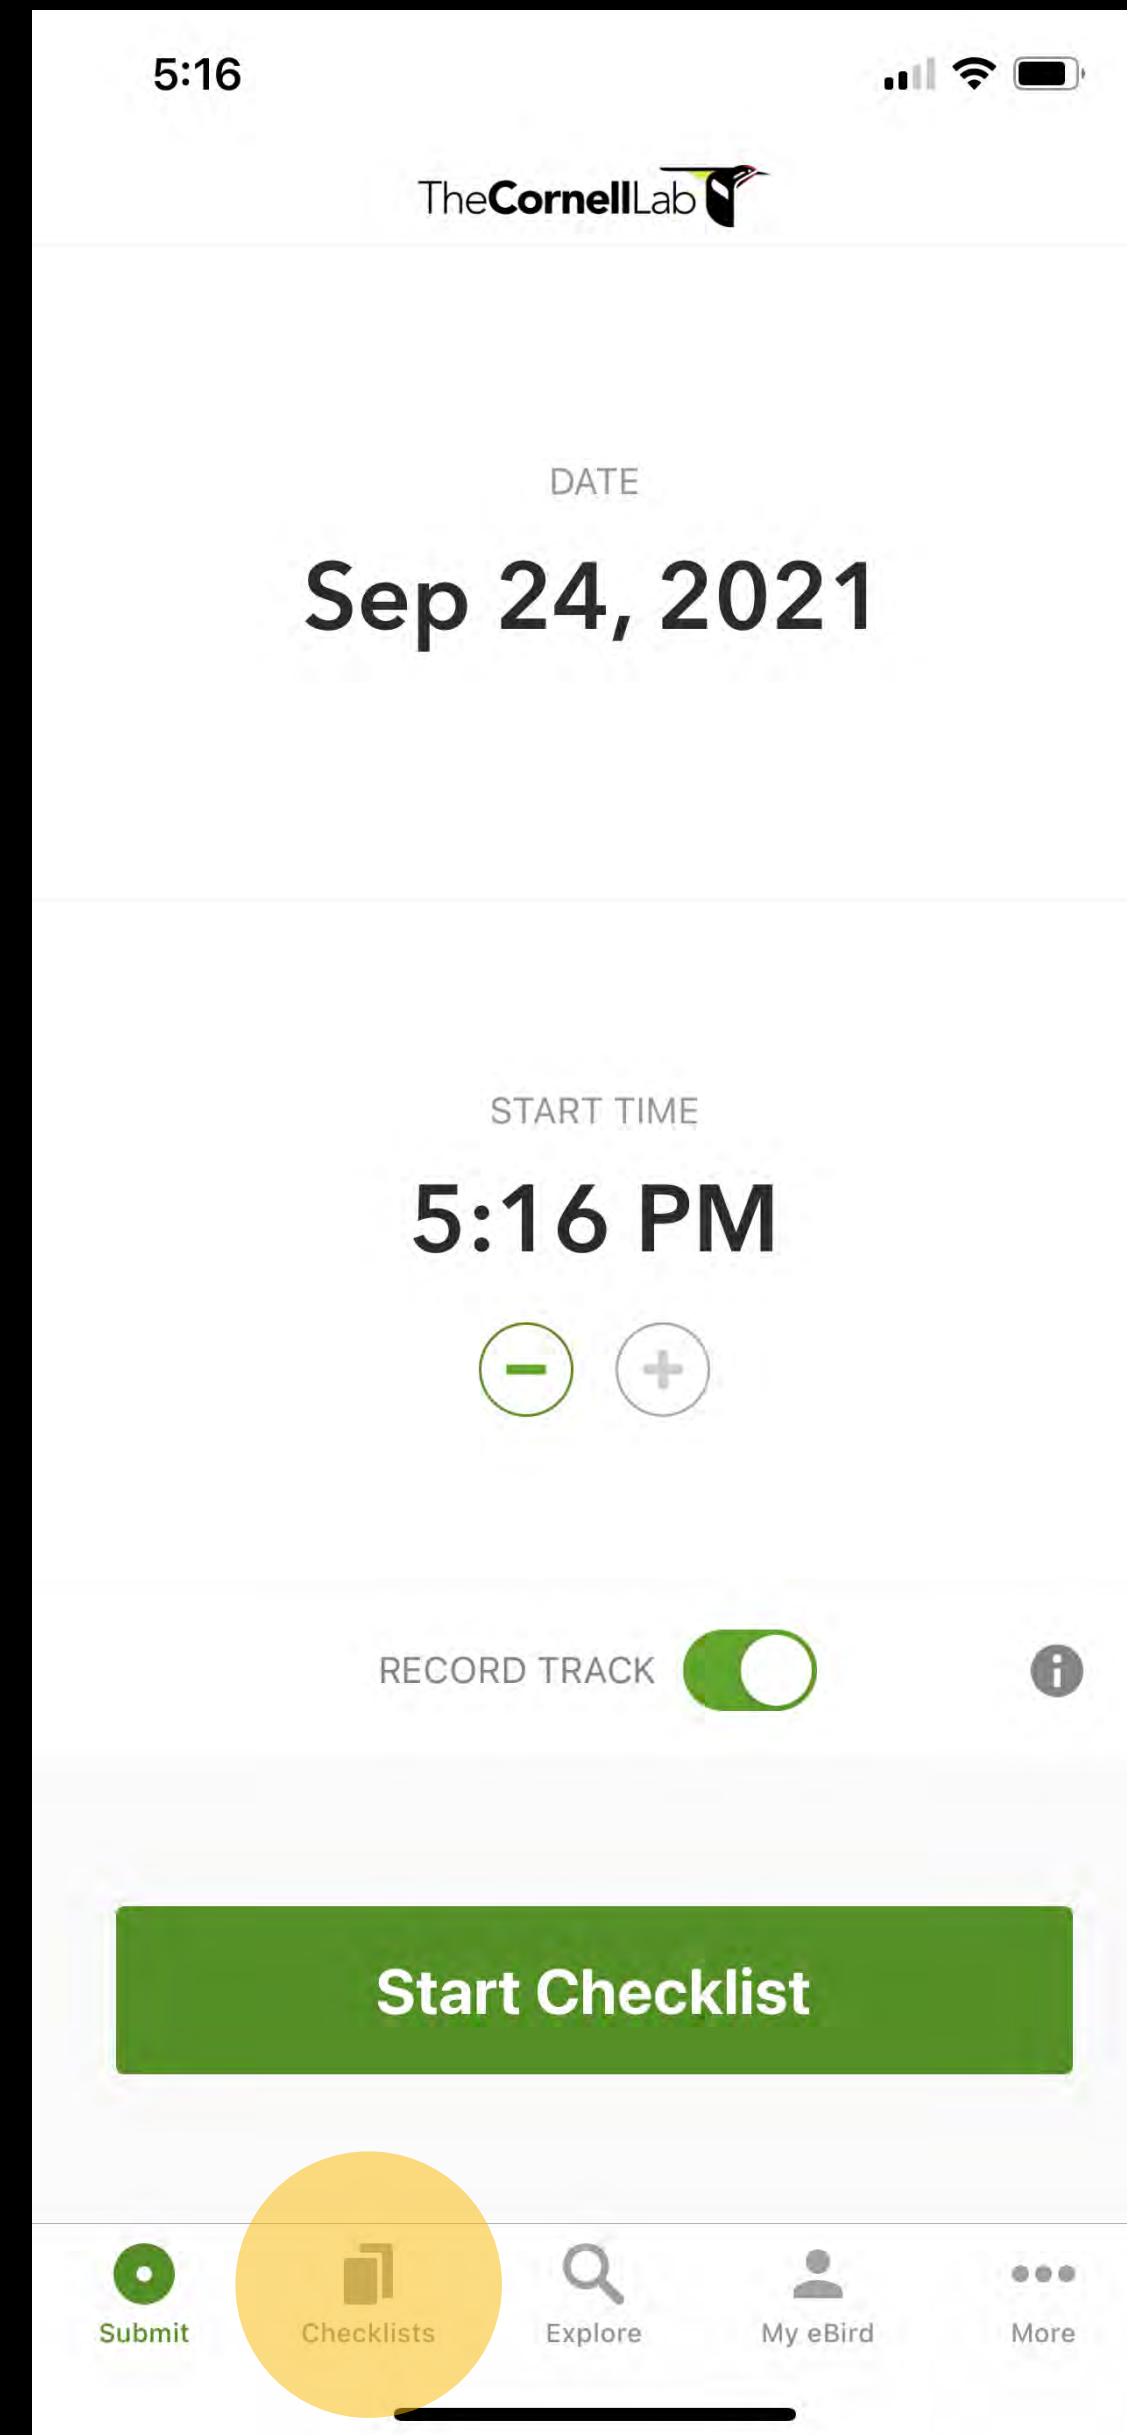

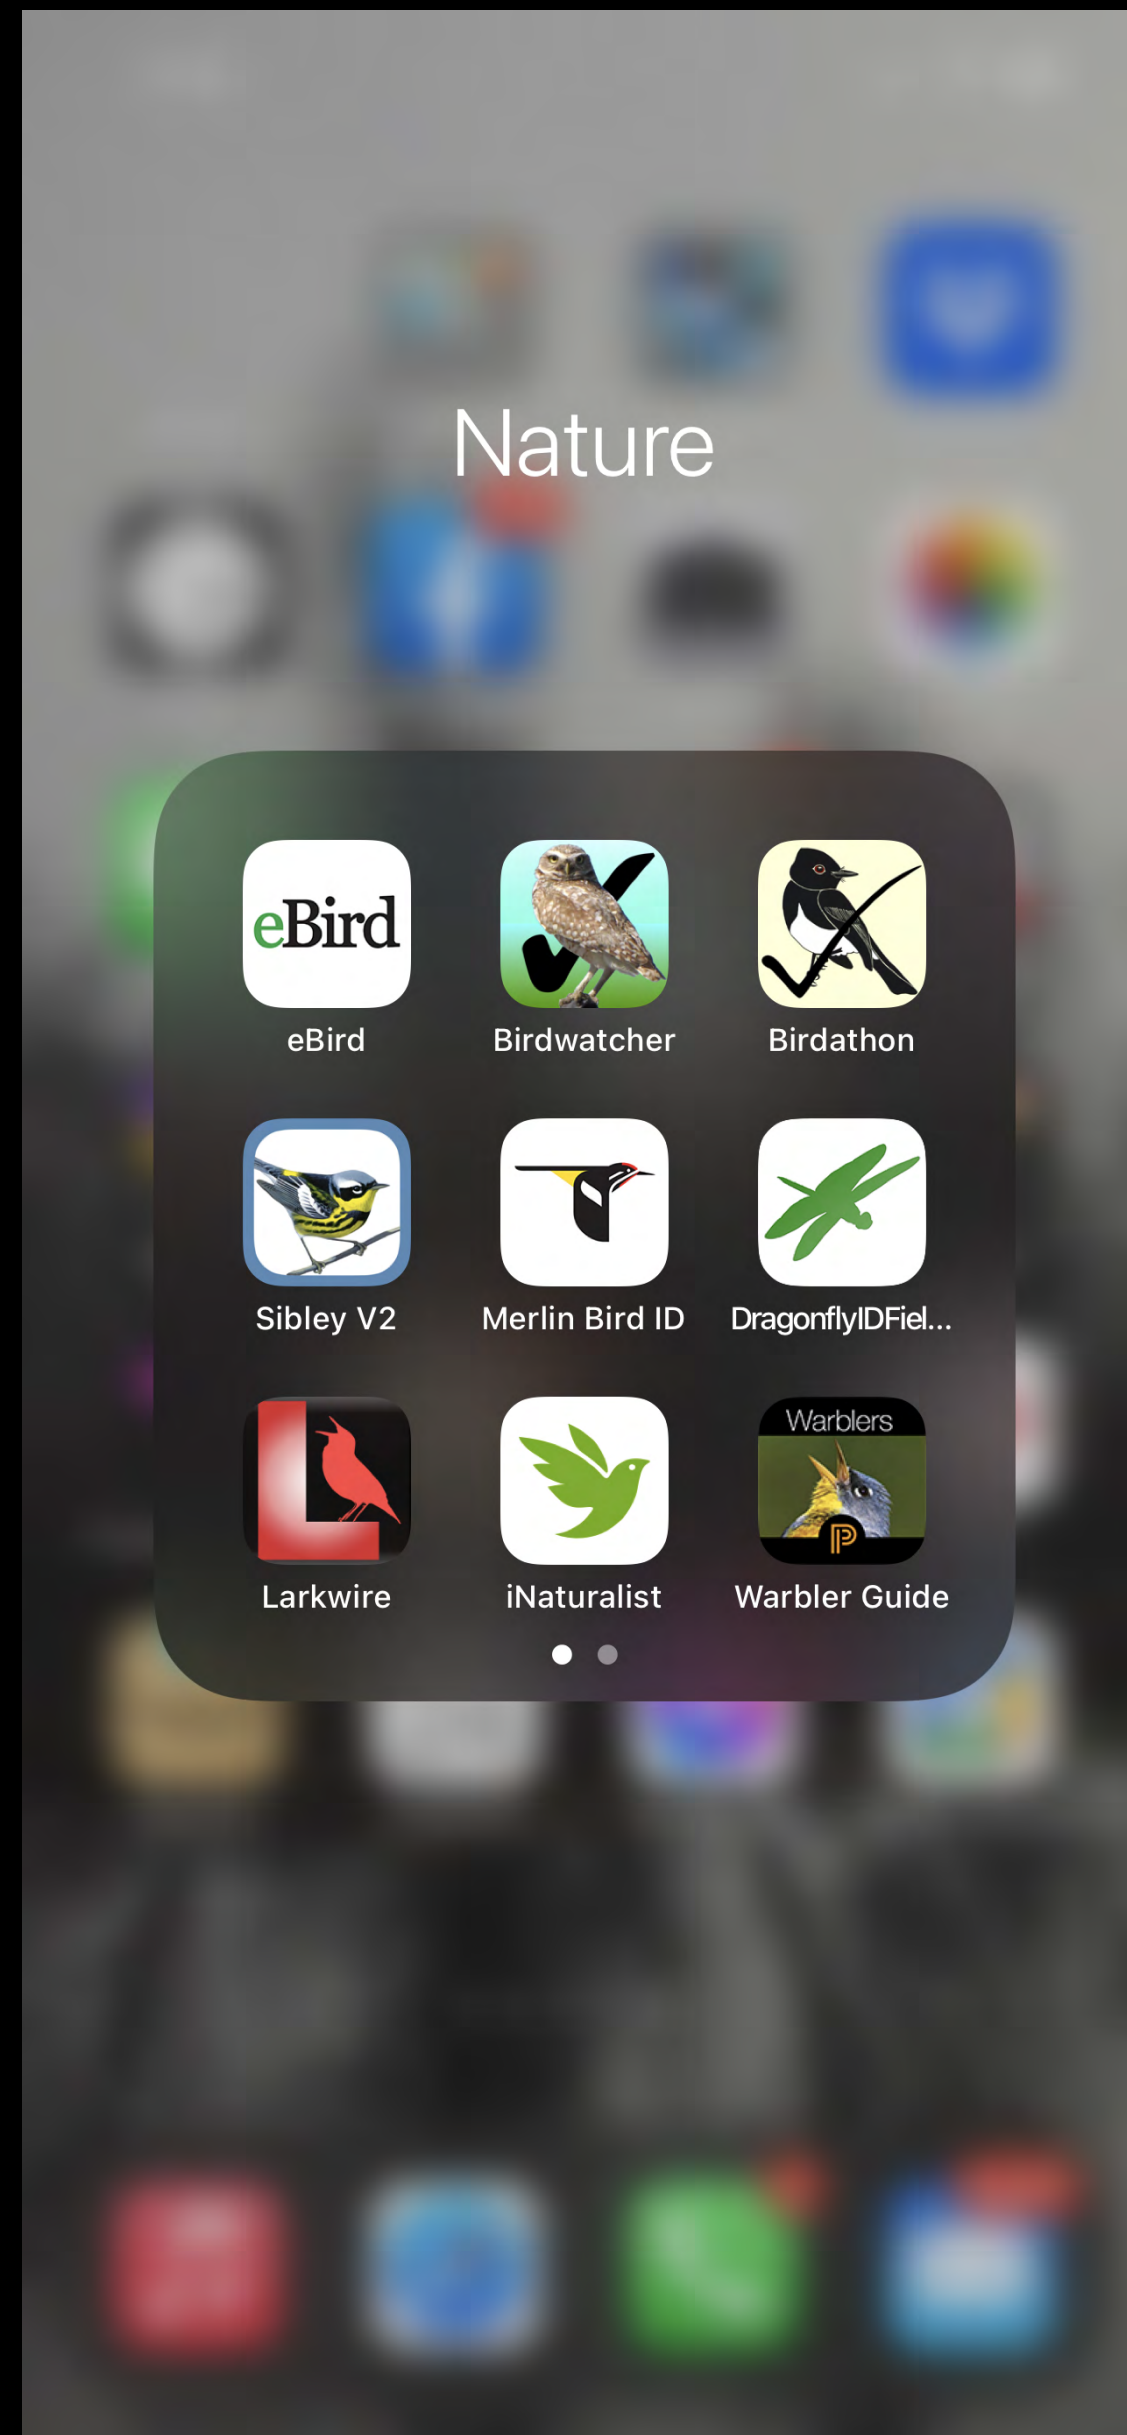

Hit “done” after you make the change.
